Subject: You added message for your deputation

Since submitting my deputation, I have identified several effective strategies for managing highway traffic during incidents of congestion, accidents, and when a vehicle is being pursued while traveling in the wrong direction on a highway in Germany. Regardless of the specific scenario, the following legal requirements must be adhered to:

1. Vehicles must move to the outer sides of their lanes, creating a clear path down the center for emergency vehicles.
2. Vehicles may be required to move to the inner sides of their lanes, allowing emergency vehicles to travel along the outer edge.
3. In certain areas, police are typically not allowed to pursue a vehicle traveling the wrong way, as this has been found to escalate the danger.
4. In California, the California Highway Patrol is prohibited from pursuing a wrong-way vehicle for the same reason.

I would like to extend my sincere thanks to Inspector Leanne Everson and Anita Longo for their invaluable assistance in preparing this deputation. Additionally, I would like to commend Inspector Everson for leading a remarkable team of officers—a testament to her strong management skills.
