

Solicitor General Approved Form: Requirement to Notify a Supervisor of a Conflict Under Section 3 of the Ontario Regulation 401/23 Conflicts of Interest

This form is designed to meet requirements under Ontario Regulation 401/23, Conflicts of Interest, which is made under the Community Safety and Policing Act, 2019. This regulation sets out an approach to situations where the impartiality of the police service or its members may come into question, as a result of a conflict of interest.

This form is to be used by any member of a police service (officer and civilian) when reporting a conflict of interest to a supervisor, as required under the regulation, and in accordance with the conflict of interest procedures established by the chief of police.

Requirements to notify a supervisor of a conflict of interest as set out in regulation:

Under section 3 of the regulation, a member shall notify a supervisor as soon as possible if a potential institutional conflict, actual institutional conflict or personal conflict respecting the member arises, or the member believes is likely to arise, with respect to a policing function that the member is required to provide.

Additional definitions are provided in the Appendix.

Appendix: Definitions under O. Reg. 401/23

Personal conflict: A situation in which a member of a police service’s private interests or personal relationships place, or may reasonably be perceived to place, the member in conflict with their professional duties with respect to the provision of policing functions; (“conflit personnel”)

“personal relationship” includes, but is not limited to, a relationship with any of the following persons:

1. A current or former spouse, common-law partner or other intimate partner of the member.
2. The member’s children, including biological and adoptive children and stepchildren.
3. A legal dependant of the member.
4. A child in the member’s care.
5. A grandparent, parent or sibling, including grandparent-in-law, parent-in-law or sibling-in-law, of the member; (“rappports personnels”)

Actual institutional conflict: A potential institutional conflict for which a determination has been made under subsection 5 (1) that an informed and reasonable person would not believe that a member of the police service who must take action or make a decision in the situation could do so impartially; (“conflit institutionnel réel”)

Potential institutional conflict: A situation in which a member of a police service must take action or make a decision in relation to criminal conduct that is alleged or reasonably suspected to have been committed by or against any of the following persons, but does not include criminal conduct that is alleged or reasonably suspected to have been committed against a peace officer acting in the course of their duties:

1. Any other member of the police service, including the chief of police or a deputy chief of police.
2. In the case of a member of a police service maintained by a police service board,
 - i. a member of the police service board, or
 - ii. a member of a municipal council or of a band council of a First Nation, as applicable, in the area for which the police service board has policing responsibility.
